

Want to know.....

what makes America different from every other country in the world?
It's people like John Gebhardt, shown below.

John Gebhardt's wife, Mindy, said that this little girl's entire family was executed. The insurgents intended to execute the little girl also, and shot her in the head...but they failed to kill her. She was cared for in John's hospital and is healing up, but continues to cry and moan. The nurses said John is the only one who seems to calm her down, so John has spent the last four nights holding her while they both slept in that chair. The girl is coming along with her healing.

He is a real star of the war, and represents what America is trying to do.

This, my friends, is what makes us different. It's called COMPASSION. There is only one country in the world that consistently reaches out to help others, and that country is the United States of America! We have been blessed by our Creator and given a responsibility to care for others.

We should never forget that our leaders are placed in their position of leadership by the Almighty. Think of that the next time you criticize the leadership of this country and realize that what we're doing over there is making a difference. Even if it is just one little girl at a time.
